

LULAROSE

HOW OUR CUSTOM DESIGN PROCESS WORKS...

Email your design concept and imagery to info@lularose.com

We will relay your vision to our graphic design team

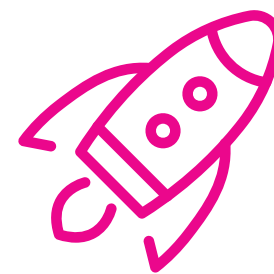

At no cost to you, our graphic designers will create some digital concepts and we will send them to you for review

Once the necessary revisions have been made and you are satisfied, the design is finalized

We will then print a physical sample for you and ship this to your address

Once you are happy with how your product looks and feels, it's all systems go and production can begin!

When production is complete, your one of a kind product is shipped to your chosen address
